

CRU Publications List & Order Form

The following publications are available for purchase:

New

- Letting In The Light: Reflections on Leaderships, Ethics and Human Services by Michael Kendrick. CRU Publications – 2009 (order form: www.cru.org.au/books/LettingInTheLightOrder.pdf) $33.00
- On Being The Change We Want To See: A collection of writings from CRUcial Times and CRU's Occasional Papers (Vol 3) (Published by CRU, 2005) $25.00
was $32.50
- The Challenge of Inclusion: people labelled with "challenging" behaviour" and the struggle to belong. 2005 Conference Papers. An excellent resource for family members and workers. $25.00
- Like a Sweet Cup of Tea: Shared Lives, Neighbourhoods and Communities. With the intention of encouraging a stronger movement in favour of authentic community living, and underpinned by a theme of reconciliation, this book provides stories of people with disabilities living ordinary lives, in valued roles, and in love relationships, and explores the ethics and the practices that make this possible. (Published by CRU, 2004) $25.00
was $32.50
- Relationships & Everyday Lives: People With a Disability And Vital Communities. This collection expands our thinking about relationships and community, offering examples from the lives of those who have dared to believe that people with a disability can experience positive, reciprocal relationships, sustained and developed over time. (Published by CRU, 2002) $25.00
was $32.50
- Telling the Untold: Families, Disability and Institutions - Stories of Banned and Unrequited Love by Beverley Funnell. A book that reminds readers of the centrality of love and family relationships, and what happened to these when loved ones were placed in institutions. (Published by CRU, 2001) $15.00
was $20.00
- Community Conversations: A Collection of Writings from CRUcial Times (Vol 2). Stories and insights about inclusive communities through the themes of: vital communities; identity and roles; being in life, not a system; challenges and strategies for services. (Published by CRU, 2003) $20.00
was $25.00
- A Good Life, An Ordinary Life: A Collection of Writings from CRUcial Times (Vol 1). Stories and insights about good lives through the themes of: a sense of belonging; relationships; dreams and aspirations; collective action; struggle; and good service support. (Published by CRU, 2001) $20.00
was $25.00
- A Brief Introduction to Social Role Valorization as a High-Order Concept for Structuring Human Services by Wolf Wolfensberger. A monograph which explains the concept of Social Role Valorization. (1991) $28.50
- The Future of Children with Significant Impairments: What Parents Fear and Want, and What Others May Be Able to Do About It by Wolf Wolfensberger. The material in the book is divided into three parts: What will happen to my child with a disability when I am gone? Thoughts on parental responsibilities when one's child has an impairment. Common experiences of parents. (2003) $30.00
- A Guideline on Protecting the Health & Lives of Patients in Hospitals, especially if the Patient is a Member of a Societally Devalued Class by Wolf Wolfensberger. This monograph considers the dangers to the health of societally devalued people when they are admitted to hospital and proposes measures to protect people in hospital. Anyone likely to be in the role of an advocate for a vulnerable person who may be spending time in a hospital will find this monograph invaluable. (1992) $15.00
- The Origin and Nature of our Institutional Models by Wolf Wolfensberger. (1975) $25.00
- The New Genocide of Handicapped and Afflicted People by Wolf Wolfensberger. A monograph which alerts the reader to the actions of our society which bring about or hasten the deaths of devalued people. (1987) $15.00
- Changing Lives, Changing Communities by Harriet Ziegler. An excellent plain-English description of Social Role Valorization. (2004) $8.00
- Safe and Secure – Six Steps to Creating a Good Life for People with Disabilities- Western Australia Edition –Al Etmanski with Jack Collins and Vickie Cammack – (2008) $48.00

CRU exists to support the development and leadership and authentic change which enhances the possibilities for people with disability to belong to and participate in community life.

TO ORDER:

Complete your personal details, indicate the quantity and title of the book/s you would like to order, calculate the cost (including postage and handling) and return to CRU:

By Mail:
Unit 1/414 Upper Roma St
Brisbane QLD 4000

By Phone: 07 3211 5700

By Fax: 07 3211 5711

Email: admin@cru.org.au

Date of order: ____/____/____

Name: _____

Organisation: _____

Address: _____

Suburb: _____

State: _____ P/Code: _____

Telephone: _____

Fax: _____

Email: _____

Payment Method

Cheque or money order enclosed

Invoice me

Charge my credit card

The sum of: $ _____

Card Type: Visa MasterCard

Card No: _____

Name on Card: _____

Signature: _____

Expiry Date ____/____

- A Good Life for You and Your Relative with a Disability Parent and author, Al Etmanski, describes what is truly important when contemplating the future of a person with a disability. Full of practical ideas, this 330-page book is positive and inspiring. (2000) $75.00
- Movement Differences and Diversity in Autism/Mental Retardation by Anne M. Donnellan and Martha R. Leary. For a long time people with communication and behavioural difficulties have been subject to practices based on coercion and control. This book moves towards appreciating, understanding and accommodating people with behavioural support needs. (2002) $37.00
- Leisure, Integration and Community by Peggy Hutchison and Judith McGill. This book is a practical resource for all those concerned about the inclusion of people with disabilities in the community through leisure opportunities. (1998) $70.00
- Night Life: Ten Years of Light in the Dark An uplifting book about a small community-based service that assists people with disabilities in a personalised way in their own homes at night. (Published by MACS, 2002) $16.50
- One Person at a Time by Patricia FratAngelo, Marjorie Olney, and Sue Lehr. One Person at a Time chronicles how one agency left behind group home models to pioneer individualized housing and support, called supported living. It is the story of one agency's quest to serve people based on what each person really wants and needs, rather than fitting people into pre-existing models. (2001) $50.00
- PASSING. A tool for analyzing service quality according to Social Role Valorization criteria. Ratings Manual 3rd (revised) Edition by Wolf Wolfensberger and Susan Thomas. (2007) $94.60
- The Homes West Experience: Steps to Independent Living for Adults with a disability. Compiled by Jill Hole from contributions made by Homes West families (2007) $11.00
- Myth Busting and Momentum Building: A Community Conference about Truths in the Lives of People with a Disability. 2007 Conference Papers. (Published by CRU, 2007) $20.00
was $25.00
- A Place Called Home 2nd edition: A story about a life unfolding by Alison Ouellette. A Place Called home chronicles the story of Dave Ouellette and his family who challenged the system and won. An inspirational family memoir that follows the family's quest for Dave to live in his own place. (2008) $35.00
- We Come Bearing Gifts: The story of Deohaeko Support Network by Janet Klees. Limited stock! (1996) $40.00
- Our Presence has Roots: The ongoing story of Deohaeko Support Network by Janet Klees. Limited stock! (2005) $40.00

More details on these and other publications can be found by visiting the CRU website: www.cru.org.au

Book Title	Price	Qty	Total
	$		$
	$		$
	$		$
	$		$
	$		$
	$		$
	$		$
	$		$
Plus postage and handling Overseas Postage: rates may vary	First item $5.50
	Subsequent items $3.00 per item
	TOTAL		$

CRU Staff Use Only 2010/04

Book Provided on Tax Invoice.....

CC Authorization: _____ Prices as at October 2009. All prices include GST