

CRU exists to support the development of leadership and authentic change which enhances the possibilities for people with disability to belong to and participate in community life.

Living Real Lives in the Community What does it take and what gets in the way for people who live with disability?

Presented by Dr. Michael J Kendrick

Tuesday 4th – Thursday 6th May 2010

Tuesday 9.30am start - 5.00pm finish

Wednesday 9 am start – 4pm finish

Thursday 9am start – 4pm finish

Rydges Southbank Hotel
23 Palmer Street Townsville

About the Workshop

Over the three days Dr Kendrick will explore the key dimensions of supporting personal lifestyle development. Topics covered will include:

- Recognizing, developing and mobilizing informal "natural" resources
- Right relationships
- Understanding and intentionally safeguarding the person's vulnerabilities
- Family governed models
- Imagining better
- Understanding the person and their unique needs
- Identification of strengths and capabilities
- Sustaining success in valued roles
- Effectively and repeatedly problem solving any challenges that may arise

This is designed as a three day workshop with each day building on the previous one therefore single day registrations have not been catered for.

Who the Workshop is for

People with disabilities, family members, allies, advocates, human service workers and coordinators, and others who are interested in developing good lives for individuals with disabilities and their families.

About the Presenter

Michael Kendrick is well known as an educator, advocate, consultant and author. He is Canadian but now lives in Massachusetts, United States. He worked in government and non-government agencies before becoming a consultant. Michael has been a regular visitor to Queensland for over 20 years so brings knowledge and understanding of local and national issues, as well as an international perspective on the issues that people with disability and their supporters face as they strive to live in their community.
