CRU exists to support the development of leadership and authentic change which enhances the possibilities for people with disability to belong to and participate in community life.

A CRUcial Conversation with Professor Lesley Chenoweth

Thursday 28th Oct 2010
5.30pm-7.30pm

CRU's offices, level 2/43 Peel Street South
Brisbane

Professor Lesley Chenoweth, Griffith University, has recently returned from a sabbatical in Canada where she was immersed in current thinking on topics of great relevance to the Queensland context.

TOPICS: Lesley will initiate and join with us in conversation on:

- Assisted Decision Making in the Canadian context: Debates and Challenges
- Self Directed Funding in British Columbia: Supports and threats to self-directed funding and how partnerships between government and community provide a buffer for individuals and families.
- (and if we are lucky!) An “Arctic Travelogue”

THE PRESENTER: Lesley Chenoweth (BSW, MSW, PhD) is the inaugural Professor of Social Work in the School of Human Services and Social Work at Griffith University. She has been employed in academia as a teacher and researcher in social work, disability and human services for more than 20 years with a long standing practice career prior to that. Lesley is currently the President of CRU. She has a long standing research record and significant publications in her research fields as well as being nationally and internationally recognised for her leadership and commitment to authentic change in the lives of people with disability.

This conversation is for people interested in models of support which deliver good lives for people with disability.

Cost: $20 by donation on the night (light refreshments and finger food provided) Places are limited – please RSVP by Monday 24th October for catering purposes.

How to find us:

Level 2 / 43 Peel Street
South Brisbane

NB –The building is opposite St Mary’s Catholic Church. The entrance is via Merivale Street. It’s the building with the big red stripe down the side.

Getting here:

Bus – the closest busway is at the Cultural Centre on Melbourne Street. To get to CRU from there – turn right into Grey street – walk along Grey until you reach Peel street. Turn left at Peel and walk approx 230 m to the corner of Merivale and Peel Sts.

City Cat – the city cat terminal closest to CRU is adjacent to QPAC at Southbank. It is approximately 1.2km walk from there.

Train – the closest train station is South Brisbane which is on Grey Street opposite QPAC. It is about 600m from there to CRU.

Car – Merivale Street is one way – you will need to enter Merivale from Montague Road to drop off passengers at the door.

Parking – On street parking in this area is limited. There is some on street metered parking in Merivale Street and Montague Road. Manning Street and Boundary Street have 9 hr on street parking (max cost of $8/day). Brisbane city council has a metered parking station on the corner of Montague Rd and Cordelia Streets.

GOMA, Art Gallery and Convention Centre have car parks, which are in walking distance.
