

Queensland Membership: Application or Renewal

Community Resource Unit (CRU) is a community association of people with disabilities, families, and workers from the disability field. CRU was founded in 1988 and exists to support the development of leadership and authentic change which enhance the possibilities for people with disabilities to belong to and participate in community life. CRU receives funding from the Queensland Government and also raises funds from some fee-for-service work.

CRU's main Objectives include:

- Working towards intended, positive change by identifying issues of strategic significance and by exploring and demonstrating new possibilities in the areas of community living, employment, inclusive education and service development.
- Encouraging and contributing to the growth and development of people who are involved in change efforts by offering a range of educational and development opportunities.
- Developing and safeguarding those elements which contribute to quality services by supporting the work of community agencies which are striving to be responsive to the needs of people with disabilities and their families.
- Drawing attention to, and providing information relevant to key challenges in the disability field.

CRU's Mission is to:

- ◆ Challenge ideas and practices which limit the lives of people with disabilities, and
- ◆ Inspire and encourage individuals and organisations to pursue better lives for people with disabilities.

CRU's main Program Activities include:

- ◆ Publication of CRUcial Times 3 times a year
- ◆ State-wide access to our Library
- ◆ Educational events throughout Queensland
- ◆ Leadership Development Programs and Strategies
- ◆ Project Work in areas of key importance

CRU welcomes membership by individuals and subscriptions by organisations.

Please see notes about membership overleaf.

CRU exists to support the development and leadership and authentic change which enhances the possibilities for people with disability to belong to and participate in community life.
